This immaculate Fuji White 2026 Jaguar F-PACE R-Dynamic S, with only 5,822 miles, offers a rare opportunity to own a nearly new luxury SUV. Adorned with striking Red Brake Calipers and 20-inch wheels, this vehicle commands a presence on the road. The interior is a masterclass in refinement, featuring an Ebony leather cabin equipped with the immersive Meridian Surround Sound System and versatile 12-way heated and cooled seats. Performance Under the hood, this F-PACE is powered by a spirited 2.0L turbocharged Ingenium engine delivering 246 horsepower and 269 lb-ft of torque. The standard All-Wheel Drive system ensures confidence in all conditions, while the 8-speed automatic transmission provides seamless power delivery. With its low mileage, the mechanical components are in peak condition, offering the same sharp handling and responsive throttle that Jaguar is known for. Design The exterior is finished in crisp Fuji White, a color that highlights the SUV's athletic proportions and the bold contrast of the Red Brake Calipers behind its 20-inch Gloss Black wheels. Inside, the Ebony leather performance seats provide a sophisticated, cockpit-like feel. The aesthetic is further enhanced by premium metal treadplates and an Interior Black Pack that adds a stealthy, modern edge to the cabin's luxury. Technology At the heart of the dashboard is an 11.4-inch curved glass touchscreen running the latest Pivi Pro infotainment system. It features wireless Apple CarPlay and Android Auto, along with integrated navigation. Audiophiles will appreciate the Meridian Surround Sound System, which utilizes 3D Trifield technology to deliver a concert-like audio experience throughout the whisper-quiet cabin. Advanced Safety Features Safety is paramount, featuring a comprehensive suite of driver assistance technologies. This includes a 3D Surround Camera for effortless parking, Blind Spot Assist, and Lane Keep Assist. Adaptive Cruise Control with Steering Assist helps reduce driver fatigue on long journeys, while Emergency Braking and a Driver Condition Monitor provide an extra layer of proactive protection. Convenience and Comfort The 12-way heated and cooled electric memory front seats ensure personalized comfort regardless of the season. Convenience is elevated by the powered tailgate, keyless entry, and two-zone climate control. The cabin is also equipped with wireless device charging and an interactive driver display, making every interaction with the vehicle intuitive and effortless.
