This particular model, finished in the vibrant and rare Sorrento Yellow with very low mileage, represents a high-spec example of Jaguar's refreshed design. Combining an assertive road presence with a refined All-Wheel Drive system, it offers a balanced driving experience that caters to both enthusiasts and those seeking a premium daily grand tourer.PerformanceUnder the hood, the R-Dynamic is powered by a supercharged V6 engine. Paired with a QuickShift automatic transmission and Intelligent Driveline Dynamics AWD, it offers brisk acceleration and confident handling. The trim adds an adaptive dynamics suspension system and a switchable active sports exhaust, allowing you to move from a refined hum to the signature Jaguar crackle at the touch of a button.DesignThe exterior refresh introduced slim, horizontal LED headlights and a more aggressive front fascia that perfectly complements the Sorrento Yellow paint. This model features the Gloss Black Exterior Pack, which accents the grille surround, fender vents, and badges. The alloy wheels and muscular rear haunches emphasize its athletic stance, while the deployable rear spoiler maintains the car's clean silhouette until needed for downforce at higher speeds.TechnologyInside, the cabin is anchored by an Interactive Driver Display and a Touch Pro infotainment system. It comes equipped with smartphone integration and a Meridian Sound System. The navigation system provides real-time traffic updates, while the configurable dynamics allow the driver to personalize settings for throttle response, steering weight, and gearshift mapping.Advanced Safety FeaturesSafety is prioritized through a suite of driver-assistance technologies. This F-Type includes Emergency Braking, Lane Keep Assist, and a Driver Condition Monitor that detects signs of fatigue. Front and rear parking sensors are standard, and this model features Traffic Sign Recognition and an Adaptive Speed Limiter to help keep the driver informed of changing road conditions and local regulations.Convenience and ComfortThe interior is upholstered in a premium Black Suede and Leather combination, featuring electric memory Performance seats that provide exceptional lateral support.
